You are invited to
Centenary Celebrations
1915 to 2015
17 & 18 April 2015
It is 100 years since Currawa Primary School was first established at Dookie College. Come and join in the celebrations on the 17th and 18th of April. It’s a time to catch up with old friends and make new ones. Come along and share your stories of your days at Currawa, reminisce about past times and renew old acquaintances. Bring your children, grandchildren and parents to share your memories. You’ll have the opportunity to see the Currawa of today with its modern facilities and the students will show you how and what they learn today.

There will be food available at the school, fun activities and lots of old photos and memorabilia. If you have any school memorabilia please bring it with you or scan your photos and e-mail them to us beforehand. Please note that there are other events at Dookie Campus on the Centenary weekend so we suggest you arrange your accommodation early.

We look forward to a fun and festive weekend to celebrate 100 years of Currawa.
